“ Our deepest sympathy to the Butler family and friends. The loss of a loved one in death is very painful and difficult to bear. The Bible calls death our enemy. But God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes at 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:3,4.##imported-begin##Collins & Beverly Foster##imported-end##

“ I once had to make a journey when my mother passed. She asked me not to cry for her. In return, I said you must take your journey alone and I cry because you are leaving me. To the Butler family, Johnny has taken his journey, and must leave you, but you will find comfort thru family and friends as you remember how much he enjoyed his wonderful and happy life. Jehovah has promised us a resurrection, so you must pray and believe in His promise, so that you will see Johnny again. Much love, Ms. Cassie###imported-begin###Cassandra Johnson###imported-end###

“ To The Butler Family: May Jehovah God be with you during this difficult time. God revealed that it was his purpose that those who have fallen asleep in death be restored to life by means of a resurrection. Jesus Christ himself said that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." When death separates family members, such great loss can result in deep sorrow. Even the perfect man Jesus gave way to tears when his friend, Lazarus, died even though he knew he had the power and he intended to bring him back to life. Therefore, it is natural to experience sadness when death claims someone you love. The bible assures us at Psalm 34:18 that God "is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."###imported-begin###Chandra Murphy###imported-end###
