Joleitha Davis- Peguese, the daughter of the late Eliza and Joseph Davis was born in Morven, North Carolina on April 2, 1936. The Lord called her to her final resting place on June 26, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

“ My grandmother was a great woman she opened her heart to everybody. She loved her family dearly and they loved her, she was a very strong woman and very strong minded. My grandmother brought me in when i was 3 and she treated me like i was her birth son. She did everything she could to keep us happy. We all showed our appreciation to grandma even when she least expected it. It surprised us all when she passed we didnt expect it, but she lives in all of us in spirit. The house and family will never be the same without her but she still lives on in our mind body and soul.

I agree Rodney. When I stayed with Jo and Jahue for that few months, she introduced me to everyone, as her daughter. She was very Kind, and boy could she cook!!
