“ I always remember him walking out to the door when he knows we are coming to visit and almost there or when we call to say we are coming over. Uncle Red is how we called him. I always felt his love and welcoming spirit when I visited with the kids. We will miss him so much. Auntie Pat sending you so much love and Gods blessings and strength during this times. Uncle Red rest in peace and we will love and care and keep auntie Pat going for you. Love you 🤗
