

Jonathan Chambers

November 22, 1961 - August 8, 2009

Jonathan Chambers Sr. was born to Vera Bruce and Jonathan Crenshaw Sr. on November 11, 1961 in Greenville, Alabama. On August 8, 2009, God called him home. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools, and later obtained his G.E.D. and Barber's license. Throughout his life there wasn't a person or soul he couldn't touch with the joy of laughter. He was also gracefully blessed with a voice that made the angels in Heaven smile down at him. With his passion to always want to be surrounded by family, and a character that held the spirit to love, he made many friends wherever he went. He was known for giving nicknames, such as "Band Aide" (referring to Valerie), who he said "tired to heal the world", and for jokes that brought tears to your eyes. He will be sincerely missed by all who knew and loved him. He leaves to mourn; his mother, Vera Bruce, father, Jonathan Crenshaw Sr., who preceded him in death; children, Jonathan Jr., LaShina Chambers and Antoine Lewis; one grandson, Jonathan Chambers III, wife, Cheryl Chambers; step-daughter, Cetera Dias; two sisters, Valerie and Veronica Bruce, brothers, Kenneth Chambers, who preceded him in death, Nathaniel and Michael Chambers and Tyrone Bruce, two step-brothers, Danny and Dennis Bruce, two special aunts, Yvonne and Sabrina, grandfather, Leo McKee, who preceded him in death, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Death is never easy to deal with especially when it overtakes someone so young. May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and the promise that those who have fallen asleep in death will live again (John5:28-29) on a paradise earth.
Warmest regards.###imported-begin###C. Murphy###imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. I have experienced the sorrow of losing a loved one to death and I have also experienced the comfort provided by “the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). If you “draw close to God he will draw close to you,” (James 4:8) and will become your source of comfort as well. Please allow yourself to do just this through a study of God’s Word the Bible and truly learn how God will fulfill the hope he gave to all of us at Acts 24:15, the hope of a resurrection.###imported-begin###Gwen
