

Joni Maria Jackson Holland

September 8, 1958 - January 8, 2012

JONI MARIA JACKSON HOLLAND, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on her father's birthday, September 8, 1958. she was born to the late George Emory and Mary Lou Jackson. After a lengthy illness, Joni departed this life on January 8, 2012.

Joni received her education in the Baltimore City School System. She attended Western High School where she used her beautiful soprano voice to become an active part of Morgan's choir under the direction of Nathan "Doc" Carter. Joni's love of music kept her active in the choir for many years after leaving Morgan State University.

Joni's son, Kevin T. Holland II, whom she affectionately called her "Champion," was born from her union with Kevin T. Holland. She devoted her life to making sure Kevin was well cared for and loved. She departed this life with the joy of becoming "MaMa GiGi" to her grandson, Jonah for just over a week.

Joni was predeceased by her brother, Darryl and nephew, Samuel.

She leaves to mourn: her son, Kevin; grandson, Jonah; sisters, Gwendolyn Johnson and Joslyn Starvis; sister-in-law, Shelia Jackson (Darryl's wife); brothers, Martin (wife T. Teresa) and Carl (wife Myrna); nieces, Kris, Stacey (husband Richard), Marie, Stephine, Danielle, Jordan and Morgan; nephews, Lamont, Stephen, Cedric and Bryan; great-nieces, Danielle, Madison and Sabrina; aunts, Gloria, Winnie, Linda (husband Ben) and Wanda; uncles, James (wife Victoria) and Oscar. In addition, she leaves to mourn: her best friend, Charlotte Armstead; and a host of relatives and friend.

“ Kevin, I forgot to put my telephone number in the guest book. Please feel free to contact me via Veronica's telephone number or my email address. You know that I will always be here for you. Call me anytime, day or night if you just want to talk. Maybe we can make time for that fishing trip when you are ready. I'll miss her too!

“ We had a longtime sisterhood of three. Now, one of our sisters has past on. Miss "Perfect Pitch" we will always embrace you in our hearts. Thank you for the fun sleepovers when we were young, giggly ladies in Morgan's Choir. My family loved when I would kidnap you for the day and take you home to Temple Hills, Md. You would always laugh and say "Ronnie, you're doing it again, I hope mom and dad have something good cooking." They always did have something special for you prepared. You were the baby in the sisterhood of three and yes we spoiled you, but only because we loved you for over 3 decades. I'll end this the way you would always end our telephone conversations. "LOVE YOU SWEETIE"

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
