

Joseclyn K. Easley

September 23, 1959 - June 10, 2021

Joscelyn Karon Easley was born on September 23, 1959 to married parents Hyacinth Easley and James Easley. She was born at University Hospital Baltimore, MD. She was affectionately known to be called Hellcat by her dad. Her family moved to Staten Island, New York for a few years in her early years where she attended school in the public school system. While in New York she attended ballet classes with her oldest sister Juanzez Easley. Later they returned to Baltimore where she attended St. Ambrose Catholic school and later went on to attend Forest Park where she graduated high school at the age of 16. She worked with her mom Hyacinth Easley during the summers at different programs. Joseclyn had first daughter Tiffany Jones on March 4, 1981, her second daughter Eboni Hill on June 21, 1988, third daughter Tiarra Hill on March 7, 1990, and fourth daughter Tanaia Hill on March 18, 1992 all of whom went on to graduate on time from school. She became a grandmother on March 20, 2008 when her grandson Isaiah Parnell was born. She later had 2 granddaughters Aamera Beasley born January 17, 2013 and Macayla Mason born January 16, 2014. She was loved by her grandchildren who affectionately named her "Ma-Ma". Despite dealing with drug addiction she became clean in 2009 and never looked back. She got her BA in drug counseling. Education was always a strong suit for her. She enjoyed spoiling her grandchildren and will be truly missed by her family,
