“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time. With deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy in the passing of your loved one. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible provides us with comfort as it promises that our loved ones now dead will indeed live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you find comfort and strength in God's Word the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my deepest and heartfelt sympathy to your family in the loss of your dear loved one. What a sad thing it is to lose a beloved family member. Nothing touches us as hard and we feel so powerless. Almighty God didnt intend for any of us to die, and he promises that this enemy, death, will be done away with forever. 1st Cor 15:26. Many of the bible prophets foretold a future time when the dead would rise again. The prophet Daniel foretold that many people asleep in the dust will wake up. Daniel 12:2. Also John 5:28,29 tells us: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus's) voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." Imagine seeing all of your loved ones who have died over the years, come back to life again. May these wonderful promises from Jehovah God be a great source of comfort to you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
