

Joseph Alston JR

September 29, 1955 - June 29, 2014

Joseph Alston, Jr., best known as “Bo”, son of the late Joseph Alston, Sr. and Dora Alston, was born on September 29, 1955. He left this world on June 29, 2014 after a short illness.

Bo received his education in the Baltimore City public schools. After his schooling he enlisted in the United States Navy from 1972 to 1980.

After finishing his term in the Navy he found employment at Sparrows Point where he was a dedicated employee and a hard worker as a Welder. Bo had various employments throughout his life.

Bo loved his family and friends, especially his mother. He was a people person and he loved being with the crowd. Bo loved ping-pong and backgammon and played often with anyone that he could find to play with, but first of all he loved sports and having a good time. The zest for life stayed with him always. Bo was the kind of person who smiled all the time and now that smile will be missed.

He leaves to celebrate his life: his mother, Dora Alston; two sisters, Yvonne Alston of Baltimore, Maryland and Audrey James of Tampa, Florida; his significant other, Georgia Allison; one brother-in-law, Brian James; two nephews, Andre Jennings and Latiff James; two nieces, Kim Simon and Louise Robinson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

AND YOUR FAMILY IN TAMPA FLORIDA - July 06, 2014 at 07:59 PM

“ *To the Family of Joseph Alston Jr. :
I wanted to share some words of comfort from the scriptures with you since you lost your loved one in death. Death is such a terrible and painful thing. But God's word the bible tells us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that 'the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing.' So soon no one will be dying. What a wonderful hope. Revelation 21:4 says there will be 'no more sickness, death, mourning outcry or pain. So once God does away with these things they will be gone forever and we will never lose our loved ones in death again. Well I hope these words have brought you comfort and if you have any comments or questions please e-mail me or go to www.jw.org.*

“ Accept my sincere condolences for the passing of your love one, I hope you will find comfort from this scripture in Isaiah 25:8. It says that God will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces. Just imagine a time when the pain of death is no more. My prayers are with your family.
