

Joseph B. Miller

April 4, 1979 - March 1, 2006

Joseph B. Miller, Jr., son of Joseph Bernard Miller, Sr., and Nellie Faye Miller, was born April 4, 1979 in Baltimore, Maryland. Joseph departed this life on Ash Wednesday, March 1, 2006. Joseph received his education at Walbrook High school and Harbor City Vocational School. He was also employed with his father as a father and son team at Eagle Express Incorporated. Early on in life, Lil Joe, as he was affectionately called, embraced many hobbies such as dancing, singing and being the jokester. Lil Joe was famous for “lighting up the room” when he walked in, because he was always smiling. His most favorite thing of all was Martial Arts. He had 6 belts in all; the black belt was his highest achievement. Lil Joe started karate in 1989 at the age of 10. On the early afternoon of March 1, 2006, Lil Joe was looking at the calendar and turned to his mother and said, “I’m getting old, today is March 1st and in 34 days, I’ll be 27 years old, um, mmh.” Not knowing it would be the last conversation and the last time he would ever see or talk to his mother again. Lil Joe leaves to mourn his passing, his father, Joseph Bernard Miller Sr.; his mother, Nellie Faye Miller; his two daughters, Joequanna Miller and Joenaye Miller; three sisters, Bernadette Miller, Jo Nicole Miller and Claudette Miller; 4 nieces, 4 nephews and one niece on the way; 3 grandfathers, Johnny Rush, Claude Mayo and George Cotton, Jr.; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ May I send my condolences to you all in your lost. Losing a very dear one like Joseph breaks the family circle badly. We long for a time when death will be no more. The bible help us to deal wit the losing of our dear one by the comfort from our Heavenly Father in all our tribulations as 2 Cor.1:3 says. Joseph was a young person with so much to live for and things to do and see in the world. May all the memories and happy times shared with Joseph help you all hearts stay strong. My sincere fellow feeling. Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Although I don't personally know your family I offer my sincere sympathy on the death of your loved one. Death really his hard, especially when one is so young as your son was. I too lost my son at a young age so I can truly feel your pain. What helps me to cope is the joy of the ressurection. At John5:28,29 the bible says; "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." So it"s a comfort to know that our loved ones are in God"s memory. He remembers every detail about them, and can restore life back to them. One day we won"t be crying tears of sorrow anymore, but our tears will be tears of joy when we see our sons again. Pleas trust in these promises from Jehovah, because one day soon they will become a reality. May you find peace.###imported-begin###R

“ May you find strength,comfort and gain faith in knowing,that God he's able to deliver on time and he's able to see you thru. Proverbs 3ch 5-6 vrs is a great help."Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not to thy own understanding;in all thy ways acknowledge him and he shall direct thy path."###imported-begin###Elder.
