“ I love you JoJo. You will truly be missed. I don't have the words to say and this has truly taught me that life is short and we don't have the time to always do what we one day hope for. I now have a brother watching over me. I love you Jo💕💕

This is one of my favorite times with Joseph, BJ and Tiffany. They had so much fun during the teen fellowship that day. Thanks for sharing

It saddened me to hear when I got a call that Jo was gone. There are no words to express the grief I felt. I remember the many times as a child how he spent the night at my house. My children were his god brother and god sister. As he got older, we talked about things that would plague him from time to time. He would always look forward to godmommy sending him money for his birthday and Christmas. We spoke by text in February, and by phone in March when he was upset about some things. I talked with him to calm him down. I prayed for him for years everyday as I do my own children for God to protect and care for him. My heart goes out to Jo's family, as he will be deeply missed by us all. Rachel, if you need me, just call me. I'll be checking up on you too, as we have to get used to the void of Jo leaving us that fills our hearts. May God grant grace and peace and comfort to my godson's family! Love you all! Claudia ❤️

To The Baldwin Family,

Joe is like a son, I never had. Holding him from the time he was born to see him grow and mature through the years, I would have never thought when I spoke to him a week before his death I would never speak to him or ever see him alive again! Rachel his childhood and teen years picking you and him up to attend church, conversations with Joe during his teen and young adult, and adult life are very memorable. I would always tell Joe he was smart and handsome that God loved him inspite of life's up's and downs, and that he would always be one of my baby's. Joe I will miss your smile and our talks! I believe you are home now with the Lord. No more sorrows!

Dear Rachel, Jean & family, My heart is heavy along with yours right now as this is indeed a difficult time. So thankful to God that we were able to attend the service and celebration of Joseph's life via live streaming. The eulogy was touching. As his uncle said, we need to tell others we love them while we have the opportunity. My very last words to Joseph were, "I love you" when he attended our ReJOYce in Jesus Ministries service the last time we held service before the "lock down". Will truly miss Joseph. May you find comfort in knowing that others love you and care about you. ReJOYce, AL & George join me in love and praying for you. Very sincerely, Sandra Thornton
