

Joseph Burrell

August 14, 1931 - August 1, 2005

JOSEPH BURRELL, son of the late Nathaniel Burrell, Sr. and Fannie Johnson Burrell, was born on August 14, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on August 1, 2005 at Bon Secours Hospital due to a lengthy illness. Lovingly known as "Joe Bo" and "Uncle Joe," he was educated in the Baltimore City public schools. For at least thirty years he was employed by The Maryland Dry Dock and Ship Building Company, initially as a handy man and later as a welder. Joe was baptized at First Apostolic Church on Caroline Street, after being ministered to by his stepfather, the late Elder Herbert Bedford, Sr. Joe loved spending time with his family especially on Christmas and New Year's Day, when he invited everyone to his place for good food and fun. Yes, Joe Bo was a throw down cook in the kitchen! Uncle Joe was like a father to his nieces and nephews. Joe loved to dress in sharp suits and hats. He loved traveling, especially to New York on weekend trips, sometimes accompanied by family members. In spite of his struggle with dementia he still had an eye for the ladies. Uncle Joe will surely be missed by his family and friends. He is survived by: one brother-in-law, Fred Brown; one sister-in-law, Lavenia Burrell Young; one stepsister, Helena; two stepbrothers, Herbert Bedford, Jr. and Howard Bedford; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Joe was preceded in death by his four brothers and five sisters, George, Ida, William, Nathaniel Jr., Laura, Clara, Romaine, Robert and Jean.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My family and I offer our deepest condolences to you during this very difficult time. It is truly unfortunate that the sorrow associated with the loss of a loved one enters into our lives. Fortunately there is One who will provide us with comfort now and in the days to come, "The Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort..." mentioned at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. May you also allow him to be a source of comfort for you.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in regards to the loss of your loved one. During this difficult time, the Bible is a wonderful source of comfort. Just imagine the time when God "...will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." So, death will be something of the past and during that time the ones who have died will come to life again.(John 5:28,29) May these truths from God's Word the Bible bring a measure of comfort to you and your family during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Sandy Sloane##imported-end##
