

Joseph H. Butler Sr.

March 26, 1945 - July 6, 2013

JOSEPH HERMAN BUTLER SR., son of John Butler and Olivia Butler, was born on March 26, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on July 6, 2013 after a lengthy illness. Although his memory was failing him he always seem to be encouraged when family and friends visited him.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Upon completion of his education, he became a full-time employee of Borden Inc. for thirty years.

He had many interest: playing chess, painting pictures and walking through the neighborhood. He enjoyed his granddaughter Jeda. She was one of the joys of his life.

Joseph made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man.

He leaves to mourn: his lifelong partner of forty years, JoAnn; son, Joseph; daughter, Christina; four sisters, Delores, Annette, Carolyn and Janet; grandchildren, Jeda and Landon; nieces, nephews; and host of other relatives and friends.

To the one I will always love, Herman A piece of my heart is gone. Rest in peace, I love you. JoAnn

Hi Dad and Papa, We are going to miss hearing, Babygirl are you alright? The ways you made us laugh, the love and protection we felt. Papa, I am going to miss coloring, dancing and the big hugs. God has His arm around you now.

Love Christina, Joseph and Jeda

“ When someone dies, their spirit lives on in us. Take comfort in knowing that you will always carry Joseph in your heart. Remember all the good times you spent with him. We pray that you find peace in knowing that he will always be a part of you. May his memory be cherished and bring you joy and laughter. It's never easy to lose someone. Know that you are in our prayers at this difficult time.
