“ The death of a loved one is truly hard to come to grips with. The pain cuts so deeply. I pray that you receive much comfort and strength from out heavenly father to help you to cope with your loss. Many people wonder is death a permanant end for us. When Jesus's good friend Lazarus died, Jesus told his diciples, "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep." So Jesus compared death to sleep in which a person can be awakened from. John 11:11-14. The Apostle Paul spoke of this as well. At Acts 24,15 he said, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection." Jesus also spoke of this ressurection at John 5:28,29 when he said,"Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." I really hope that your family gets some comfort from these scriptures, and may that help you to cope with your loss of Joseph; especially knowing that one day he will live again. We have this promise from Jehovah, the God of love who never fails to fullfill his promises. 1st John 4:8, Heb 6:18###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end##

“ Losing a dear one breaks the circle of life. Mr. Joseph was almost 76 years young the bible say that some person will live to be 70 years and others 80 yearsrs because of speical mightiness. Imagine the joy and happiness that will result when the dead are resurrected.###imported-begin###Lillian Crosby###imported-end##

“ May God continue to keep you in this most trying hour. Trust me he will never leave you or forsake you. When you think he is not there, that is when he is carrying you. Keep the faith and know that he loves you at all times and in all seasons. A former co-worker @ THC.##imported-begin##Priscilla Ramsey-Eaddy##imported-end##
