“ There are no words that can express how brokenhearted I am in the loss of my Beloved Brother who suddenly departed from our lives during this holiday season. The one thing I know for sure is that this man's wonderful soul was united with our dad and another brother living in eternal peace, dancing and singing with the heavenly angels at the throne of God in paradise.

It is said, we don't get to choose our family. That is true only in the secular sense, but not in God's eyes nor HIS Will for us. HE tells us we are all family. We are all HIS children. I am blessed and privileged Ricky was my chosen family on earth as well as in heaven. Few have the pureness of heart, youthful energy, long patience and a killer smile to top it all off like my big brother Ricky. I envision Ricky giving a great big smile at the FATHER and the FATHER giving him a great big smile right back!
