

Joseph Charles Jones

October 20, 1926 - November 2, 2004

On November 2, 2004 at 6:20 p.m., "J.C." heard God call out his name to come home. His work on earth was completed. JOSEPH CHARLES JONES, fondly known as "J.C." and "Paper," was born October 20, 1926 in Fairfield County, Blackstock, South Carolina to the late Mary Miller Jones and Virgil Jones. Joseph received his education in Blackstock, S.C. and moved to Baltimore, Maryland where he found and married his soulmate and true love of thirty-eight years, the late Johnnie Mae Moore Jones. Out of this union came a devoted and loving daughter, Pamela Joyce (Jones) Luallen. "J.C." joined the United States Army and served his country from September 20, 1950 to August 8, 1952. He was then employed at Western Electric until he became employed at Bethlehem Steel where he worked in the coke oven and did maintenance until his retirement in 1985. He found God and became a devoted member of Israel Baptist Church. There he fellowshiped along with his late wife and family members until his health would no longer allow. J.C. loved to talk about the good old days, fishing and sports; but most of all he loved talking about his wife and family. His favorite pastime was watching "The Price Is Right" and sitting on the front steps with neighbors. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, and five siblings, Newport, Arthur, Edward, David, and Vigie Mae Jones. He leaves to mourn: his devoted daughter, Pamela (Jones) Luallen; son, Ronald; loving grandson, Michael Luallen; two devoted sisters, Inez (Jones) Taylor and Sally (Lillie Mac) Jones Wylie; two great-grandchildren, Taylor and Madison Luallen; great-granddaughter-in-law, Pamela Luallen; two brothers-in-law, James Earl Moore and Wendell Wright; two godchildren, Ervin Solomon, Francine Easter; a devoted, a devoted buddy, Warren Williams; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
