

Joseph Claggett

September 17, 1960 - February 8, 2002

On February 8, 2002, Joseph Claggett was called home to his eternal-resting place. Joseph affectionately known as “Joe” by his family and friends was born on September 17, 1960, to Alice Kent and James Claggett in Prince Frederick, Maryland, he received his education in the Calvert County School System and later moved to Baltimore City to pursue his career as a maintenance engineer. Joe worked as a maintenance engineer until his sudden death. During his life, he was inspired to accept Jesus Christ as his Savior. He attended several churches on a regular basis, mostly Jones Tabernacle Baptist. Joe could fix any thing that was broken. His motto was “if I can’t fix it, it can’t be fixed.” Joe was a fun loving, energetic, and kindhearted person. He was a devoted father and grandfather who spent most of his time helping others. He unknowingly touched the lives of many. To know him was to love him, for he would give the world if it were in his power. Although our suffering continues we can rejoice knowing that Joe is at peace with his Lord. He will be greatly missed. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Kim P. Thompson, Parents, Alice Kent and James Claggett; grandmother, Emma Kent; three children, Lavada Claggett, Courtney Greene, and Christopher Thompson; three sisters, Linda, Vernita, and Joyce Claggett; two brothers, Thomas and Leroy Claggett; two grandchildren, Kacie Greene and Antonio Brooks, Jr.; father and mother-in-law, James and Norma Andrews, Robert and Ruth Thompson; three sisters-in-law, Sharon Claggett, Dale Thompson and Wanda Walder; and adopted sister and special friend Pam Williamson-

Rowlette, and a host of other relatives and friends.
