

Joseph Clemons

August 18, 1936 - April 10, 2012

Joseph Owens Clemons lived seventy-five of the richest and most robust years that any man could. He went on to a higher place on April 10, 2012. Joe was born to Albert and Colline Clemons on August 18, 1936. He survived by his soul mate and best friend Barbara Clemons, there for him until the very end. Joe's children are Sabreem Abdulbatin, Kim Monique Clemons, Frenchi Mack and Zachary Clemons; grandchildren, Isa Makdeeh Abdulbaatin, Wakeelah Abdullbaatin, Amerah Abdulbaatin, Tyquan Edmonds, Alani and Alana Edmonds; his siblings, Brenda Walls, Michael Clemons, Dannette Rush, Bernadette Clemons and Drucilla Clemons, continue to live in his memory. Starling Rush, Caline Clemons, Alan Walls, Calvin Clemons and Candice Clemons were his beloved nieces and nephews. Rita Ricks, Carla Clemons and Rita Clemons were his cousins.

Joe, affectionately known as the "Chief", blessed all who knew him with his magnanimous spirit, jovial sense of humor and a larger than life personality. Joe proudly served his country as a U.S.A.F. Korean War Veteran, and has served proudly his community as a member of the Ancient and Accepted Free Masons Inc., M.W. Zenubbabel Grand Lodge in Baltimore, Maryland.

Joe was an avid athlete who began his life as a decorated track and field star who participated in the Penn Relays as a young teenager. He played Semi Professional Football and organized softball throughout his adult life. He kept the medals coming by as recently as a year ago, continuing to compete in the Veterans Special Olympics in his later years.

Joe was equally talented in business. He was a published songwriter in the 60's, a successful restaurant owner in the 70's, and a pioneer in the construction industry throughout the 70's, 80's and 90's. He was honored several years in a row, by the United States Small Business Administration with the Minority Contractor Award for completing several major large scale construction projects in Maryland, the District of Columbia and Northern Virginia. Always the entrepreneur, his business ranged from Jodie's Luncheonette, Nu-Ko Painting and Decorating, All Surfaces and Clemons Construction Inc. Joe was an true Artisan.

Joe touched everyone he came in contact with as he spread his affection, wit and charisma to everyone in his circle.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Ms Springer - April 22, 2012 at 10:42 AM

“ Dear Family. I'm very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear Joseph. When our loved ones die, we mourn. We die because of Adam's sinful condition as well as death was passed on to all of his descendants. (Rom 5:12) That sin is like a terrible inherited disease from which no one can escape. Its consequence, death, is a curse. Death is an enemy, not a friend. (1Cor 15:26) How grateful we can be that Jehovah God provided the ransom to rescue us from this dreadful enemy through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ! The Bible foretells a time when "death will be no more." (Rev. 21:4). Jehovah God created us with the desire to live forever. Read these scriptures anytime you think of Joseph; may they console you, because as long as you stay close to God and serve him wholeheartedly, you will see Joseph in the Earthly Paradise! (Psalm 37:29; Rev 21:3,4).
