

Joseph Kenzie Commodore

September 16, 1957 - September 15, 2013

JOSEPH KENZIE COMMODORE was born on September 16, 1957 to Ethel Luvenia Commodore and the late Lawrence Sylvester Commodore, in Baltimore, Maryland.

He departed this life on September 15, 2013 after a long illness.

Kenzie, as family and friends affectionately knew him, was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. With all of life's ups and downs, he remained positive even through illness. He loved singing and enjoyed old school R&B and conscious Hip Hop music. He enjoyed dressing to the nines. He enjoyed playing dominoes with the "fellas." Kenzie was a non-judgmental listener who always gave positive and encouraging advice. He made you feel like no matter the issue, things would turn out alright; and he would never end a conversation without saying, "I love you". He was a very loving man, and he will truly be missed by all whose lives he touched.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Ethel Luvenia Commodore; his daughter, Toccara Commodore; grandson, Shirague Durrell; stepdaughter, Tosha McNeill; his sisters, Elaine Moore, Lorraine Austin and Yvonne Lucas; two aunts, Helen Mason and Ann Pearmon; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. He also leaves to mourn dear friend, Shirley Johnson; and his dear friend, Deborah Ann McCaskill.
