

Joseph Cottman

March 3, 1943 - October 20, 2016

JOSEPH COTTMAN, beloved son of the late Ira Harding Cottman and Leila Higgins, departed this life on October 20, 2016 after a lengthy illness. Joseph, the third of four children, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on March 3, 1943. He had two brothers William I. Higgins and Ira Cottman, Jr. who preceded him in death.

Joseph ("Uncle Joe" as he was affectionately called) attended Southern High School where he was the MSA unlimited weight class wrestling champion. Joe also played football at Southern High School. Joe was a sports enthusiast and loved to go to gambling casinos. Joe also enjoyed playing the lottery. Joe was always neat in his clothes and received comments from the girls.

Joe was a friend to all. He was employed at Crownsville State Hospital as a transportation specialist where he transported patients and specimens. Joe loved to record movies and music, loved playing cards and spending time with family. He was a loving and caring person always willing to help others.

"Uncle Joe" was known to be a person who would give you the shirt off his back.

He leaves to mourn: his sister, Carolyn Hampton; brother-in-law, Jimmy Hampton, Sr.; three nephews, Jimmy Hampton Jr., Keith Hampton and Derick

Cottman; special niece, Andrea Gail Higgins; two nieces-in-law, Stefanie Hampton and Danita Hampton; great niece, Jineara Hampton; great-nephew, Keith Hampton Jr.; special friend, Denise Wallace; favorite cousins, Earl Cottman and Bernadette Peterson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the Cottman family. I am sending out my deepest sympathy for your loss. Please find comfort in knowing God hears your prayers. At 1 Thessalonians 5:17 it says to Pray Constantly. Pour out your heart to him and he will sustain you.

We know that soon death will be no more. At Revelations 21:4 it states just that, it reads "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

That is something we all can have hope in. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the entire Cottman family.

“ My heartfelt condolence to the family. May the Most High GOD comfort and sustain you during this difficult time.(Psalms 55:22)

T. Parker - October 24, 2016 at 05:52 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
