

Joseph D. Cain

November 14, 1921 - June 15, 2003

Joseph D. Cain was born on November 14, 1921 in Florence, South Carolina to the late Chatman and Laura Cain. He was the oldest of four siblings. In the early 1940s Josh, as he was known, moved to Baltimore, Maryland. He was later united in Holy Matrimony to Mattie Nell Grant, who preceded him in death. Josh later joined the Navy and spent time at Pearl Harbor. He received a discharge with honors after four years of service. Josh was employed as a tractor-trailer driver until he retired in 1986. Even after he retired he continued to work part time as a school bus driver. He leaves to mourn: two sisters, Carrie Scott of Baltimore, Maryland and Annabelle Strawder of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; one brother, Gryffarn of Pittsburgh; four nephews, Elder John Sippio, Albert, Andrew and Henry; one niece, Ella Ball; and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, other relatives and friends.
