

Joseph Daniel White

September 18, 1924 - December 15, 2009

On December 5, 2009, our Father, Grandfather, and Great-Grandfather Joseph White, Sr. departed this life. Joe was born September 18, 1924 to the late Mary Bogle and Richard White. Joe was a World War II Veteran that served his Country from 1943-1946. While serving in the U.S. Army, he was awarded a Good Conduct Medal, European African-Middle Eastern Theater Ribbon and a World War II Victory Ribbon. Joe was predeceased by his wife Mary White, son Robert Brown and daughters Joyce and Carolyn White. Joe lived with his devoted daughter Rosa Allen until his health began to fail. He then moved to Lexington Court Assisted Living to receive care for his failing health. Joe is survived by his sister Gladys Melvin, brother-in-law Ernest (Elizabeth) Brown; three daughters Mary Davis, Rosa Allen, Dorothy (Roosevelt) Curtis and three sons, Joseph Jr., Wayne and Malcolm White; 26 grandchildren; and a host of great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren, nieces, cousins, other relatives, friends, and a devoted friend Madessia (Aunt Bunny) Williford.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. I have experienced the sorrow of losing a father, a sister, a friend and have experienced the profound sense of loss that comes with that. However, I have also experienced the comfort provided by “the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) If you "draw close to God he will draw close to you," (James 4:8) and will become your source of comfort as well. Please allow yourself to do just this through a study of God’s word the Bible and truly learn how God will fulfill the hope he gave to all of us at Acts 24:15, the hope of a resurrection.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
