

Joseph Davis

November 3, 1945 - February 20, 2002

Joseph Davis was born on November 3, 1945 in Nichols, South Carolina to the late Mr. Willie Davis and the late beloved Mrs. Annie McCray Davis. Joseph passed away on February 22, 2002. Joseph's family moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1948. He was raised in East Baltimore. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools and attended Dunbar High School. He served in the U.S. Armed Forces before he was retired on medical disability. He also worked for the U.S. postal Service and used his veteran's benefits to further his education. Joseph accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Savior about three years ago, when he knew things were getting hard for him to handle. So he called on Jesus Christ and gave his heart to Him. Joseph failed to attend church often, but he knew God was there with him. He leaves to cherish fond memories: two daughters, Netta and Janet; one son, Joey; seven grandchildren; five sisters, Patricia Cully, Shirley Jackson, Margie Oliver, Ann and Ruth Garnett; one brother, Timothy; four brothers-in-law, John Jackson, Freddie Oliver, Donald Cully and Ernest Garnett. He also leaves to mourn: five nephews, Corey, Lakramon Jr., Leroy Jr., Alex Early and Phillip; six nieces, Theresa, Angie, Fonda, Netta, Kisha and Patty Cake; seven grandchildren, a host of cousins, aunties, co-workers, neighbors and friends
