

Joseph Dean Jr.

January 26, 1928 - February 8, 2018

Joseph Dean, Jr., son of the late Joseph and Gertrude Dean, was born on January 26, 1928 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on February 8, 2018, after a brief illness.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School system. After High School, Joe enlisted in the Army and served during World War II as a diesel mechanic. While serving his country he received an Occupational(Japanese)Medal and a World War II Victory Medal. When Joe returned home he obtained a job with the Coast Guard and attended the Community College of Baltimore, where he completed a degree in Business Accounting. Upon completion of this course and training, he left the Coast Guard and obtained a job with the Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service.

Joe later met and married the former Amanda E. Dean. Later in life he meets the past devoted friend, Willia Wise.

Joe loved the sport of boxing and was involved with training numerous boxers out of the famous Mac's gym in East Baltimore. He even traveled to Africa to support some of their flights.

Joe made numerous friends where ever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was truly a devoted friend and family man.

Joe leaves to cherish his memories; Family and Friends.
