

Joseph Elford Lyles,

July 19, 1935 - September 19, 2009

To everything there is a season and a time...a time to be born. Joseph Elford Lyles, Jr. the first child of the late Joseph and Betty Fountain Lyles was born July 19, 1935 in Henrico County, Virginia. A time to live... Joseph grew up in Henrico County and attended public schools there. At an early age he accepted Christ and joined Quioccasin Baptist Church. He retired from the County of Henrico. His retirement years were devoted to his family and friends and his loved for dogs. A time to love... Joseph Elford, was affectionately known among his family and friends as Uncle Al and Papa. He always greeted you with a smile and jokes. Joseph never met a stranger. A time to die... On Saturday, September 19, 2009, a loving God carried Joseph home for a pleasant rest. In our hearts he will live forever. A time to mourn... Left to mourn his loss devoted sons, Joseph, III and Demarco (Erin); grandchildren, TaJuan, Lakiesha, Katrina and DeShawn; sister, Delores, brothers, Fleming and John; other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Joseph Elford Lyles,

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I know how it feels to lose someone. The bible helps us to appreciate that all those in memorial tombs will come out due to the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##kari jackson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I was so sorry to hear about your loss. may God bless all of you.##imported-begin##billy coles##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to express my sympathy for your loss. We all look forward to a time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev.21:4). May you find comfort in Jehovah God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM