

Joseph F Pulliam

January 1, 2001 - October 31, 2001

Joe Freddie Pulliam, r., was born to Augusta Pulliam and Joe Freddie Pulliam, Sr. in Baltimore, Maryland, November 14, 1960. As a kid he attended St. Bernard's Catholic School and Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School. He was an excellent student with beautiful handwriting. His most favorite played sport was baseball and he could throw a curve ball like no other in the neighborhood. He would always make you laugh by saying something funny. He was known to look out for others in the time of need. He worked several jobs during his life and was taken away from us suddenly on Wednesday, October 31, 2001. From a small boy all friends and family called him Lockie. He is survived by his mother Augusta Pulliam, father Joe Freddie Pulliam, Sr. and sister Denise Michele Pulliam, Lynn Maria Hopkins and niece Sarina Lynn Hopkins, nephews Charles Moore Pulliam and Duron Alan Hopkins, Jr. His grandmother, Vernia Rice and two uncles Robert Rice and Vernon Rice also survive him.
