

Joseph Garrett

December 15, 1931 - July 13, 2008

Joseph Weaver Garrett, son of the late Howard and Maggie Garrett, was born on December 15, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, and later in life enlisted with the United States Military, where he learned to speak German. Unfortunately, in the late 1970's, he was in a terrible accident, leaving him with much health complication. Joseph did not let that stop nor discourage him. He had a saying that helped him through his trying time, and he always lived by, "Put it in God's Hands" Holding no anger in his heart "Janitor Joe", as his friends called him, greeted everyone with the same remark. "It's always a pleasure." He could make a joke about any situation, no matter how good or bad. Joe knew how to appreciate the simple things in life. You could often find him playing cards, watching television, shooting pool and telling war stories. Residing in McCulloh Homes for years, he attended St. Peter Claver Catholic Church as often as he could and spoke regularly about the Lord. Jesus Christ. He would sometimes speak about going home to be with his Maker, and as hard as it is for us to say, we're glad he got his wish. Now he can tell the Lord about how cousin Ethel gave him his name. He leaves to mourn; his cousins, Ethel Countiess and Charles Brown his guardian,

Tribute Wall

“ Joseph Garrett

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I am extending my deepest condolences on the loss of Mr. Garrett. Acts 24:15 lovingly assures us: "There is going to be a resurrection." Some will be raised to life in Heaven (1 Corinthians 15:44), others will be raised to life on a beautiful paradise earth. (John 5:28,29; Psalm 37:29) May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about the wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I offer my sincere sympathy to the family. Many months have gone pass since you lost your loved one, but no matter how much time passes, we never forget them. I hope that the passing of time has helped to ease your pain somewhat, and I hope that your precious memories will be a source of comfort to you as well. Please keep this wonderful scripture close to your heart found at Acts 24:15 which says, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." One day your loved one will come to life again. What a joy it will be to see our dead loved ones alive again. We must exercise faith in the ransom of our savoieur Christ Jesus, and we must obey God"s commandments; yet his commandments are not burdensome. 1st John 5:3 If we do this,then we will see our loved ones come to life again. May you be comforted.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM