“ I am extremely sorry for your loss. I can not imagine the pain you have had to endure. May the God of comfort be with you now and in times to come. God's Word the bible promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 28,29 and also at Revelations 21: 3,4

“ Dear family,
I was shocked to hear about your great loss. It was unexpected. But it is said that the one who is loved the most by the Lord, is the one who attains eternity. I hadn't seen Joe in a long while, but Joe will remain in my memories forever. Joe you have always been a wonderful person thinking much about childhood memories and those teenage years. Learning to play B-ball with the guys and always being accepted. I've learned that sometimes friends are not those that we spend a lot of time with or see often, but sometimes those that made indelible impressions in our lives. Your family, friends and community will miss you much. Please accept our heartfelt condolences.
Lisa Stanley and family.

“ At this time of great loss, my deepest sympathy goes out to the Gray family as they mourn the loss of Joe, a good friend and human being. I grew up with Joe, played sports and hung out with him. Joe was a friend who would always encourage you to avoid trouble and stay involved in a positive activity. Joe would quickly confront you about poor decision making and succumbing to negative peer influence. He loved his family and was devoted to his mother. We played baseball, football, and basketball on Community Building teams and Joe excelled in each sport, he had exceptional athletic ability. We had a lot of fun time in the "Apartments (Spelman Road)"...I remember Joe taking the lead when we would sing Temptation songs...those were the days. A "Real" friend will be missed.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences in the loss of your dear loved one . How comforting to know that Almighty God has not only the power but the desire to reunite us with our loved ones by means of the resurrection hope Jesus spoke of in the Bible at John 5 : 21,28,29 when both sickness and death will be no more as promised in Revelation 21:3,4

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
