

Joseph Henri Jacques

October 12, 1931 - February 8, 2007

Joseph Henri Jacques Jr., son of the late Joseph H. Jacques Sr. and Irene Murray Jacques, was born in New Orleans, Louisiana on October 27, 1931. He fell asleep in death on February 8, 2007. While growing up as a child, he was affectionately known as “Brother” by his siblings. As a young boy he enjoyed shining shoes and shooting marbles. At fifteen years of age, he began his adventure as a merchant seaman. Later as a young man he settled in Baltimore, Maryland where he met and married Vera Dorsey. Out of that union three children were born: Jerna, Vera and Joseph, III. He worked as a longshoreman at Dundalk Marine Terminal in Baltimore, Maryland from October 1971 until his retirement in November 1993. He was a lover of jazz music, crossword puzzles, going to see the horses run at the race track, and watching his favorite T. V. program, C-Span. He could also cook a “mean” dish of red beans and rice. He is survived by: Vera Dorsey Jacques; two sons, Jerna and Joseph III; daughter, Vera; brother, Joseph Francis Jacques (the late Joseph Donald Jacques); four sisters, Marilyn J. Payton of Washington, D. C., Barbara Ann, Joan and Mercedes Jacques of New Orleans, Louisiana (the late Irene Othello Jacques); daughter-in-law, Nancy; three grandchildren, Cheree, Trinity and Serenity; great-grandchild, Kayla; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ POP, I look at your photos all the time, You did good in your last days, Trips to Atlantic City with your Youngest Son Joe Jacques and his Wife Nancy. You died in your sleep , Legs crossed watching CNN. I'm glad I got you out of that RAT Trap apartment 621 George Street and moved you into my house. I play 5525 all the time your old house I need your help to make it come out for me. Mom!! Vera Jacques says the devil is in that House. Pop!!! I need you to give me that number 5525 asap. RIP❤️❤️❤️. You died the right way with Joseph henri Jacques 3rd the one you named after you. MUCH LOVE Joseph Henry Jacques 3rd your son 3/28/23

Joseph Jacques - March 28, 2023 at 09:54 PM

JR

🙏 Family

Jesseka Robichaux - July 19, 2025 at 10:32 PM

“ Joseph Henri Jacques

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss of your dear one. May it comfort you to know that one day sickness and death will be a thing of the past, and we will be reunited with our loved ones by means of the resurrection hope. Rev.21:4 lets us know, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more." "The former things have passed away." The Apostle Paul believed in the resurrection, and he wrote at Acts 24:15, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection." Sometimes well-meaning words are not enough when someone is grieving, but I hope the caring thoughts and prayers of others will provide some comfort for you; and I hope the comforting words from the bible can strengthen you and help you to go on. I'd like to share some more comforting thoughts with you from God's word. Please feel free to contact me if you desire.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for your loss. Isaiah 26:19 lovingly tells us - "Your dead ones will live..they will rise up." From the Bible we learn that event will take place in a peaceful new world with the prospect of no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Revelation 21:3-5, 2 Peter 3:13, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43) May you receive much comfort and strength as you think about these loving promises found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM