

Joseph Tyrone Keys

November 4, 1959 - June 29, 2017

JOSEPH T. KEYS, son of the late Joseph and Alberta Keys, was born on November 4, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on June 29, 2017 at the Loch Raven Center peacefully, after a lengthy illness.

He received his education through the Baltimore City School System. Joseph, upon reaching the age of fourteen, began working various jobs with his father and grandfather car washing, cement work, and a newspaper route route were his jobs that he was very proud of as a teenager.

Joseph's adult employment included Holly Poultry, Seven Mile Market, and, at the time he became ill, he was faithful employee for the Living Classroom Foundation.

He was a member of Second Antioch Baptist Church.

Joey loved music with a passion. A true "Motown" fan. Every Christmas Eve, he would grace the family with his voice singing along with the Temptations version of "Silent Night." Gospel music became a comfort to him during his illness, especially listening to the Williams Brothers and his sister's singing to him

Joey made many friends wherever he went. He was truly a friend who would give you the "shirt off his back." He loved his family and was always willing to help with whatever they needed, especially when it came to handiwork.;

He has been and will be missed.

He leaves to mourn: his devoted sister, Anita; brother, Andre (Donna); daughter, Sequoia; Wife, Sarah; nephews, Joseph (Nikki), Jonathan, Rodney (Pauline) and Andre Jr.; great-nephews, Joseph Jr. and Jaden; and a host of family and friends.
