

Joseph L. Lineberger

August 6, 1989 - March 14, 2008

We are here to celebrate the life of Joseph Louis Lineberger Jr.; his smile and love would warm up a room. Joseph was born August 6, 1989 to the late Joseph Louis Lineberger Sr. and Regina Valerie Warren-Lineberger. In addition to great love for his parents, he also enjoyed spending time with his cousins, who were more like his siblings, Champanye, Brandi, and Malcolm. Joseph recently proclaimed his love and became engaged to his fiancée Lakeisha Lang and he looked forward to being a good father to his young children. Joseph loved football, music and watching wrestling with his mother Regina. In addition, he loved animals; one of his favorite things to do was to run in the park with his aunt's dog. His life accomplishments included his high school diploma and completing his skills training in completing carpentry in 2008. At a very young age, Joseph cared about helping in the community. He volunteered with preparation of one-dish meals at St. Mathews Catholic Church, that were served at Our Daily Bread in Baltimore. He also spent Saturday mornings at St. Edwards Church painting and cleaning. His most recent volunteer work included a variety of projects with Our House and Freedom Bible College and Seminary. “ I am sorry to learn about the death of Joseph. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span was 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ To the family of Joseph, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the family. I could not imagine such a loss, so I ask that you please accept my wholehearted condolences, knowing that I surely could not fully understand how you feel. I would just like to leave you with a comforting scripture that gives us not only hope for the future, but also some relief in our time of mourning. John the 5th chapter, verses 28 and 29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." Yes, in the very near future we will have the wonderful opportunity to welcome our dead loved ones who have fallen asleep in death back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29) May the words found in the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss; please accept my condolences. Despite the pain of losing a loved one, you can find comfort in God's Word. Revelation 21:4 says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither pain nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.' We have a promise that death will be done away with soon along with the pain that comes with loss. May the Bible be a source of comfort to you during this time.##imported-begin##A.
