

Joseph L. Savage

August 13, 1946 - July 26, 2004

On July 26, 2004, God said, “ Joe it’s time to home.” Joseph L. Savage, son of the late James and Pearlee Savage, was born on August 13, 1946 in Baltimore City. He was educated in the Arundel County school system. He served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War. Joe, as he was called by all, worked at “Domino Sugar” for thirty years. Joe had a special love of football. He had a nature that made all smiles that came in contact with him. Joe was a devoted brother and uncle. He formed a special bond with his nieces Beverly and Sheena during his sickness. Joe was a quiet-natured man and never allowed anyone to know the extent of his illness. He leaves to rejoice in his spirit: four sisters, Lois Williams, Mary Lewis, Margaret Satchell and Arenthia Forster; brothers-in-law, Mattie Savage; brother, Preston savage; and a host of nieces, nephews, great-nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Mr.Savage. When we lose someone that is dear to us it can leave us feeling so lonely and empty inside. No matter how much time goes by the pain from losing a loved one is still there. I have found that the finest basis for encouragement comes from the Bible. A relationship with Almighty God Jehovah can help you to cope with the loss of Mr.Savage. Never underestimate the value of prayer. If talking to a friend can help,how much more can pouring out your heart to the God of all comfort help you. Notice what the Bible says at Psalms 55:22...Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous to totter.I also want to encourage you to read Psalms 83:18 and Revelation 21:4 from your copy of your Bible. I hope that you can find some comfort from these scriptures. Take care.##imported-begin##Ava Norton##imported-end##

“ To the Family & Friends of Joseph L. Savage: I would like to express my sincere condolences on the loss of your dearly beloved one. It may seem unfair that sickness, which can cause death, has the power to take away someone that we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. At Isaiah 33: 24 it states that " no resident will say I am sick". Yes in the near future, Almighty God will wipe sickness, death, sorrow, and out cry away. He also promises a "resurrect" into a beautiful paradise earth-(Acts 24: 15: Luke 23:43)##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##
