

Joseph B. McCullum

October 24, 1964 - November 20, 2013

JOSEPH BRYANT McCULLUM, son of the late Gus McCullum and the loving Grace Hamilton was born on October 24, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland. He peacefully passed away on Wednesday, November 20, 2013 at Loch Raven VA Community Living Center.

He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System where he graduated from Northwestern High School. He attended Alleghany Community College on a baseball scholarship. He majored in Criminal Justice. He also served his country as a member of the United States Army where he worked as a chaplain's assistant. While in the U.S. Army he earned the following medals and badges: the Army Good Conduct Medal, the Army Service Ribbon, the Marksman Badge, and the First Class Hand Grenade Badge.

Bryant was saved at a young age. As a child he attended Solid Rock Pentecostal Church where his father Gus McCullum was the Pastor.

Joseph, who his closest friends and family called Bryant, had many passions. He was an incredibly intelligent man who was an avid reader, writer and dreamer. He loved good music. He was a generous, compassionate man who kindly spoke to everyone who he encountered.

After an honorable discharge, Bryant worked for most of his life in law enforcement for Maryland State Division of Corrections where he was well respected and rose to the rank of Captain. He also worked as security personnel for various malls and the Four Seasons Hotel which he absolutely loved! In his spare time he enjoyed watching sports and spending time with his family.

Bryant was the very proud, loving father of Brandon, Jordan, Adreina and Devin McMullum. He was also the proud step-father Asia Williams. He is survived by his mother Gracie Mae Hamilton; his wife April McCullum; his former wife, Kathleen; his two brothers, Anthony (Towanda), and Tyrone (Temekia), his sister Pam and a host of loving aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and other friends.
