

Joseph Norman Torain

July 18, 1948 - June 10, 2009

Joseph N. Torain, Son of the late Bena & Ernest M. Torain, Sr was born July 18, 1948 at 1313 N. Caroline Street in Baltimore, Md. Joe departed this life after a long severe illness on June 10, 2009. He received his education in the Baltimore public schools and through his life experiences. Joe wasn't a stranger to hard work. After walking behind mules, plowing, he joined construction union #194 working for a number of years. He would give the benefit of his knowledge to family and friends for material cost with little or no profit for himself. He loved landscaping yards, making yours beautiful and different. Ottis Redding was his favorite artist until his death then Al Greene became one of his favorite. Mimicking both was second nature to him. Joe was a confirmed bachelor with 3 beautiful girls. He leaves to cherish his memory Monica Alease Torain, Melanie Deatra Torain both of Baltimore, MD and the apple of his eye Sondra Denise Torain of Tenn.; 3 grandchildren, Patrick O'Neal Lewis II (Michelle), Kwame Jahmal and Kamaron Jahmay Fudge; Gloria Tate, Janet Torain and special long time friend of many years Ann Smith; 2 Sisters, Marlene T. Lemons (John-deceased) of Mississippi, Cynthia J. Shields (Melvin) of Balto-both love him above and beyond; Brother/Cousin James Epps (Lena); Nephews, Kevin Brown (four sons), David Shields (Jackie) (two sons and three daughters); Niece, Donna Maduabuchi (Ephrim) (Chike) all of Baltimore; 2 trouble shooting cousins, Connie Jr & Vincent Torain of Baltimore. 5 Aunts, 3 Uncles and a host of cousins and numerous friends, our adopted family the St. Claire's

“ I wish to send my heartfelt sympathy to the family of Joseph. Keep the promises of the bible close to your hearts, because Jehovah promises that if we love and serve him, and put our faith in the ransom sacrifice of our saviour, Jesus, we will see our dead loved ones come to life again. John 3:16, John 5:28,29. One day this world will be free of violence, pain, sorrow, sickness, and death, because God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and these painful things will be a thing of the past. Isiah 65:17. I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address so I can show you from the bible how these promises will be fulfilled. May the memory of Joseph fill your hearts with joy until God's precious promises come to pass. Isiah 55:11##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. We all look forward to the time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev. 21:4). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. May you find comfort, now and in the days to come, from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) In His Word, the Bible he gives us a wonderful hope found at Acts 24:15 and tells us clearly what we must do to benefit from that hope at John 17:3. Please take some time and ponder over these wonderful blessings that can benefit you and those you love.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
