

Joseph Price

December 23, 1944 - February 9, 2025

A Time to be Born:

Joseph William Price, the youngest of 12 children, was born on December 23, 1944, to the late George Price and Lillian Augusta (Brown) Price. Joseph, affectionately called Joe, was born at Provident Hospital and resided at 1349 N. Woodyear St., Baltimore, Md. A Time to Learn: Joe grew up in Baltimore, Md.

Where he was educated at Saint Peter Claver Catholic School; graduating from 8th grade. Subsequently, mental health issues impacted the rest of his life, but he learned to value himself. He remembered family members' addresses and always found his way back to his childhood home. Although significant challenges in managing his life prevented him from doing so, Joe never wavered from his desire and love to declare that he held or would hold a job as a tractor trailer driver; that he would one day have his own apartment, and that he would take a nurse on a date. His belief to secure these outcomes brought him much joy.

A Time for Companionship:

Joe never had companionship in marriage or children but he was Blessed to experience love when he was a young man and met Truity. She never left his heart. Joe was a loving son, brother, brother-in-law, uncle, and friend with fun loving qualities that shined through his challenges in life: He loved to sing and play bongos. Moreover, his traits of empathy, hope, gratitude, and humor helped others to support and care for his medical and spiritual well-being. "...and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

Matthew 28:20
