

Joseph Robert Cole

January 11, 1941 - August 17, 2003

Joseph Robert Cole, son of the late Gladys and David Cole, was born January 11, 1941 in Baltimore. Joseph was educated in the Baltimore public schools. He worked for the University of Maryland for twenty-five years. He had to retire early due to his illness. Joseph was a loving, funny, good-spirited and talented father, friend and brother. He was there for anyone who was in need. Joseph loved doing fashion shows on the job and other places. He loved music and telling jokes. One of his favorite places was Lexington Market and downtown. He was well known and loved all around. The ones who loved him, knew him and knew of him will miss Joseph. He will leave behind: four sisters, Margary, Lucille, Shirley and Rosie; two brothers, William and Calvin; eight children, Joseph Jr., Kenneth, Rochelle, Roslyn, Rhonda, Angela, David and Silva; eleven grandchildren; daughter-in-law, Chanina; son-in-law, James; twenty-nine nieces and nephews, and forty-five great-nieces and nephews.

“ My condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Please keep in mind John 5:28-29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." I hope this comforts you just as it has our family during times of loss.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
