“ Dearest Slowe family,

I work at Sinai. I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Joe just today. I have spoken and seen him for the past 8 years here. Always working, helping, talking and presenting such a kind spirit and great work ethic. He took good care of us and this building. I am so glad I got to see him a few months ago in the hallway while he was here for a doctor appointment since retirement. I joked him that he just couldn't stay away. It was then that he told me about his health challenges. I told him I sorry I was to hear that. I also told him then what a pleasure to have known him and how sorry I was to here that he was ill. And that I'd be praying for him. I now pray for all of you. Please know that he was well respected at Sinai and that he has been and always will be sorely missed. May God comfort and keep you at this sorrowful time. I am just sorry that I didn't know he was here and didn't get the chance to say hello one last time. My deepest condolences and sympathies.

Sincerely,

*Andrea Hanna

“ JoJo my childhood friend. You were a "big boy" when I was a toddler, but you always made time today with me all the one years ago on Laretta Avenue. Your parents and siblings always treated me like family. I regretdthat we a had little contact over the years. I wish I could have spoken with you at least one more time. Rest in peace my friend. For someone who I did not get to spend very much h time with in life, I am very saddened to know that I will never in this life see you smile or hear your voice. My God keeps you in his arms and comfort your family

“ To my uncle, I will miss all the good times in the yard cracking jokes, cooking out, working on cars and continous laughter all day. You will be truly missed and forever in my heart.
Love Always,
Your niece Trini

I only met Mr.Slowe as my patient in the last couple weeks of his life, but his courage, strength and attitude toward life and his unfortunate illness made a big impression on all of us taking care of him. I wish his family peace and comfort in this time of grief.

Florence Freund - November 06, 2018 at 11:02 AM

Mr. Slowe was truly a lovely man. He made an impression on all of us with his courage, patient demeanor and wonderful family
