“ To: The Family of the Late Joseph T. Williams--- The Substance of a Man--- What is man, that thou are mindful of him and the Son of man that thou visiteth him. The Substance of a Man --- Man born of a woman has but a few days and it would behoove every man to live life in a way that when he is present, others enjoy having him around and when he not around, he is missed. The Substance of a Man --- Yet when his time on earth has come to an end --- When the soul has left the shell of a body and has gone on to its final reward, that at his demise others will say good things that they remember segments of a life well spent. The Substance of a Man --- Who during the good times and the not so good times, but still he smiles, always giving God the glory and reminding others to do the right thing. Always place God in first place in your life and never ever lose your faith in the God that we love, as we strive to live from day to day. The Substance of a Man --- Christian, husband, father, family member and friend. We will forever miss your presence here on earth with us, yet you will forever remain a fond memory in our hearts. The Substance of a Man --- Gone, but not forgotten --- Joseph T. Williams (Joe). Respectfully, The Andrew Reid Family--- By Gloria C. Reid###imported-begin##The Andrew Reid Family###imported-end##
