To the Trent family, our thoughts and prayers are with you during your time of grief. May God continue to bless you and help you to move forward each day. As the slave Rev. John Jasper said in his final words "He is at the river awaiting final orders". Keep the faith and you will meet Joseph, Jr. again. Love Jessye, William & Warren Spencer

“ To the family of Joseph Miles Trent Jr.:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I am sorry to hear of your loss. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible gives hope that soon our Creator Jehovah God will end all suffering, pain, and death. And we have the hope of being reunited with our loved ones that have passed away. Rev 21:4, John 5:28-29. There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up to indefinitely everlasting life.

“ My deepest sympathies to your family. It is never easy losing someone you love, especially someone so caring of others. God promises permanent relief from our griefs at Rev. 21: 4, which states "And he will wipe EVERY tear from their eyes, and DEATH will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May this scripture give you comfort and hope in the ransom sacrifice of our LORD, Jesus Christ, and the promises of our HEAVENLY FATHER.
