

Joseph Gerald Walker Sr.

September 11, 1952 - June 5, 2011

JOSEPH G. WALKER, son of the late Joseph V. Walker and Willotta H. Walker was born on September 11, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Suddenly on June 5, 2011, Joseph departed this earthly life.

Joseph received his education through the Baltimore Public School System. He also completed the Job Corp course in Colburn, Virginia. Joseph was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Corporation for many years and was devoted to his work with carpentry. Joseph graciously volunteered for a food pantry and the NAACP, helping the survivor of the Katrina disaster.

Joseph made numerous friends and will be missed by his family and friends. He will be sincerely missed by those who knew and loved him.

Joseph leaves to cherish his memory: his fiancée, Bernice L. Engle; former wife, Karen M. Walker; son, Joseph G. Walker, Jr.; grandchildren, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. He was wonderful man who touched many lives.

I'm sadden to hear the news of Mr. Walker, only God knows as your suffering has been laid to rest. It was a pleasure working with Mr. Walker, he was a great and wise man, may his heart be laid to rest. Respectfully, Heather L. Hines, MA (case manager)

Hi my name is Thomas Burgess my mother is bernice engle she passed September 2014. But if not for papa Joe my mother would have been gone sooner. Papa Joe saved my mother from the streets as she was a prostitute and heroin addict he is the reason she got clean and he is the reason my mother found me and came back into my life and he is the reason I got to spend more time with her be for she departed this earth .thank you pa may you rest in peace.
