

Joseph Wheatley

January 16, 1946 - December 4, 2004

Joseph Wheatley, sr. son of the late James Wheatley, Sr., raised by the late Eugene Jennings, Sr. and Maudestine Jennings, was born on January 16, 1946. He answered God's call to rest on December 4, 2004. Butch received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools, graduating from Fairmount Hill High School. He initially began his employment at St. Joseph Hospital. He left that company to work at the Curtis Bay Shipyard. After leaving Curtis Bay, he became employed at General Electric, where he remained until the company relocated. He was currently employed by the City of Baltimore, working in the Department of Sanitation for more than ten years. Butch fathered four children with Brenda Ferguson-Chappell Joseph, Jr., Mia, Anthony, and Tia. He later married Elvia Wheatley and together they raised eleven children. Butch made numerous friends wherever he went. He was a big lover of all music, but especially the "Oldies but Goodies." He was always being told of his resemblance to the singer Smokey Robinson. He was best known for his kindness and generosity, but his greatest passion was the love of his family. He was preceded in death by one sister, Evelyn Davis. Butch leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Elvia; two sons, Joseph Jr. and Anthony; two daughters, Mia Wheatley-Tripp and Tia; seven stepchildren, Antoinette, Reginald, Joseph, Darnell, Michael, Ericka and Crystal; his loving mother, Maudestine Jennings; son-in-law, Alex Tripp; two brothers, James Wheatley, Jr. and Eugene Jennings, Jr.; sister, Mechael Jennings-Atkins; brother-in-law, Jesse James Atkins, Sr.; fifteen grandchildren, seven step-grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, one step great-great-grandchild; a devoted friend, Arie (Earlene) Vaughters; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Mr. Wheatley, Sr., Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. Comfort is needed at this time and this comfort can be found in the Holy Bible. Please take a moment to read Psalm 37:10,11 and John 5:28,29. Both scriptures have hope that soon we will not have to face death, we will live in a world free of crime, etc. and our dead loved ones will live again. Again, I am really sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.###imported-begin###Carter###imported-end##

“ To the Family: I am truly sorry to hear of your loss. Death is such a devastating blow to us all. The Bible is a wonderful source of comfort. Revelation 21: 3,4, Jehovah GOd says that he will wipe the tears from all our eyes and death wil be no more. May your family find comfort from ths scripture.##imported-begin##Yolanda Johnson##imported-end##
