“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death hurts us deeply because death is really our enemy.(First Corinthians 15:26) The Bible tells us that death will one day be done away with. There is hope for our dead loved ones. The Bible tells us that there is going to be a resurrection. (Acts 24:15) When that time happens there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. May you receive much comfort and strength from family, friends and these loving promises of the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Hines. It is truly unfortunate that you have to experience such a tragic loss. However, the bible is a source of encouragement at times such as this. Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and since Jesus made this promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing to fulfill it. Please read his comforting words at John 11:20-27. May you all continue to rely and find comfort from the Holy Scriptures.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, I know it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that he "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
