“ Dear family of Mrs Owens, I hope that you find the strength to carry on. I know sometimes words are inadequate at such times, but I hope that the wonderful words from our loving heavenly father, recorded in the bible can help to comfort you at this most trying time. One scripture that comforts me is at Rev 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. Rest assured, one day that promise and other promises from Jehovah God will be fulfilled when his wonderful kingdom comes and his will is done on earth, just as it is in heaven"##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to ask that you please accept my wholehearted condolences, knowing that I surely could not fully understand how you feel. I would just like to leave you with a comforting scripture that gives us not only hope for the future, but also some relief in our time of mourning. John the 5th chapter, verses 28 and 29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." Yes, in the very near future we will have the wonderful opportunity to welcome our dead loved ones who have fallen asleep in death back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29) May the words found in the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Despite your grief, you can find comfort in the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Yes the hope that Jesus promises is a solid guarantee that we can look forward to in the near future. I hope this gives some comfort to you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##A.
