

Josephine Smallwood

May 17, 1917 - April 10, 2002

On Sunday, April 21, 2002, Josephine Smallwood known affectionately as Joe left her physical body to go forth to the spiritual realm. Born on May 17, 1917 in Sumpter, South Carolina as the only child of Daniel and Sadie Shannon. Joe was married twice and from those unions gave birth to one boy and six girls. She was a member of the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church. She retired from Johns Hopkins Hospital in 1976, where as a union representative she held her own with the many equality and civil rights issues of that time period. Joe was the ideal daughter, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and friend. She had a heart of gold and she would do without to help others. She was the strong foundation that was the root of all of her families' endeavors. Joe is survived by, one son, Frank Everett, Jr., four daughters, Willie M. Hagans, Theresa Floyd, Elouise Swinson, and Cecelia Ghee, nine grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren, three great great grandchildren, one aunt, Grace Jenkins, sons-in-law, and a host of beloved family and friends. Joe has joined two of her daughters that passed before her, Fentris Pierce and Louise Everett.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
