

Jovan Lewis Singleton

May 14, 1985 - October 11, 2021

Born to John and Anna Singleton on May 14, 1985, JOVAN SINGLETON, a fun, loving and undercover comedian, was taken away from us way too soon on Monday, October 11, 2021. He was a lifelong resident of Baltimore, MD.

He received his education from Edmondson High School in Baltimore.

If he wasn't under the hood of his Acura ZDX, you could find him almost anywhere using his hands to make a means for himself and his children. No matter if he was fixing cars or chopping down trees, Jovan was going to make a way, financially.

Anyone that knew him would mention to you how deeply he adored his family; he always kept everyone laughing. With a spirit like no other, he truly had a way of lighting up a room with his bright smile and infectious laugh. Jovan never met a stranger.

He was always a force to be reckoned with. He really didn't know how to take no for an answer, and frankly, being one of the youngest of his parent's children, he always got his way. He made sure of this.

His family says that it is hard to imagine holidays and events without his wit, humor, and random heartfelt advice.

He will be greatly missed by all that he came in contact with. We are sure Heaven is very happy now. They definitely gained a gentle-spirited angel.

He is survived by his parents, John Singleton and Anna Singleton. The mother of his children, LaKeisha Jernigan; his children, Jaziah and Joshua Singleton; his inseparable brothers, Virgil Sampson, Jon Singleton Jr. and fraternal twin brother, Jason Singleton; his aunts, Evette Smith, Elizabeth Robinson, Doris Grant of Charleston South Carolina, Christine Milton; his uncles, James Smith, Michael Smith, William Singleton, Lewis Singleton Jr. of Charleston South Carolina. Jovan will also be missed by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and amazing friends who loved him dearly.
