

Joy M. Strong

September 15, 1956 - May 16, 2011

JOY, daughter of Gloria Jennings and the late Wilmer Burton Jennings, Sr., was born in Baltimore, Maryland. One of seven children.

Joy loved the following: Carlos, her son, cooking for everybody and most of all, Joy had a love for people and traveling. Joy had lived in lots of countries, Turkey, Germany and Italy. When Joy returned from traveling initially she lived with her family in Fayetteville, North Carolina, which was really home for Joy. You could talk to Joy in the morning and say, " Hey Joy, What are you cooking" Joy would say , " Get in your car, com on down to Carolina, I will have your fixed by the time you get here."

Mostly all of the family members would hear this and load up their children and their cars and head for North Carolina. We did this for about seventeen years and it was great times.

Joy would have your food fixed, have a place for you to sleep, wash your clothes and treat you like you were the most important person she had ever met. Joy baked cakes like a professional for everybody's birthday.

Joy spoke fluent Italian, was educated and trained in Nursing, loved sports cars and pets.

Joy is survived by: Moma, son, Carlos Brown, whom she loved dearly; five sisters and one brother, Christina Brown (Chrissy), Yvonne Greene (Ching), Yolande Jennings (Panny), Faith Carmelita Jennings (who gave Joy the best friendship, care and comfort and love that you could possible want) April Grice- Jennings and Wilmer Jennings, Jr. (Yummy); a host of nieces and nephews.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this time, may family and friends be comforted by the wonderful hope at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

Hello my name is James unfortunately i never had the pleasure to meet Ms. Strong but i wanted to send you my heart felt condolences. I well know she will surely be missed , But only for a short while because God's word the Bible gives a sured promise of a resurrection of our loved ones. Pease read in your copy of the bible John.5:28, 29 were it tells us that all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Acts 24:15 tells us that there is going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous! So we see Jehovah God promises us that we will be able to see our loved ones again but there is someting we must do on our part as stated: at john 17:3 PLEASE READ that scripture as well! If we do this we can be in line for these soon to be and other marvelous promises as in Psalms.37:29 which says the meek ones will possess the earth and they will reside Forever upon it! So please feel free to contact myself or any one of Jehovah's Witnesses in your area who will be happy to conduct a free home bible study with you which is in line with John 17:3 or answer any other questions that you may have. Sincerely, JAMES COMMANDER.

“ I know you don't know me, but I saw Ms. Strong's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences.

As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.' Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, "Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise." Jesus statement meant that "All the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King!

1 Thessalonians 4:13 Paul instructs us to not be ignorant concerning those who are sleep (in death); This hope Paul mentions is the hope for the restored Paradise on Earth, as Jehovah God had originally created for all of mankind to enjoy.
