

Joy T. Carter

February 2, 1973 - November 10, 2006

JOY TERRAIN JEFFERSON was born February 4, 1973 to Joseph Jefferson and the late Faith L. Faire. On Friday, November 10, 2006, Joy suddenly slipped away into her sunset. Joy was born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland. She attended St. Katherine's Catholic Schools, St. Wenceslaus and Northern High School. She later went to Job Corps and learned various trades. At an early age, Joy accepted the Lord into her life and was baptized with her cousins and her friends at the Pleasant Zion Baptist Church. As a youth, Joy served as a member of the Junior Ushers and sang on the Youth Choir. Joy loved to sing and dance. One of her favorite songs was "I Go To The Rock Of My Salvation." Joy's family affectionately knew her as a fun-loving, kind and generous person; always making you laugh, especially when she would say her old favorite words, "Give me five dollars." Joy will always be remembered for "doing it her way." Joy had three wonderful children, Seth, James and Eleah who loved their mother dearly. In 1989, Joy married James R. Carter. Joy leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Seth Barnes, James R. Carter III and Eleah Goldman; her sister, Faith Faire; one nephew, Travon Wright Jr.; her father, Joseph Jefferson; four aunts, Mary Atkinson, Fannie Streat, Ruth Gray and Martha Floyd; three uncles, William Johns, David Johns and Calvin Johns; her favorite cousins, Wendy and Cindy; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, May God comfort you in your deep sorrow for the loss of your loved one. Sadly, death is something we cannot do anything about, but we can be comforted, because Almighty God has the power to end death, and he has promised to do so. At Rev. 21:4 it says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Then the dead will be resurrected as brought out at Acts 24:15, and John 5:28,29. Please find peace and comfort in Jehovah's promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, "Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart," says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
