Joyce Ann Brown was born on October 9, 1954 in Emporia, Virginia (Greensville County). She was the lovely daughter of Grace B. Smith and John L. Smith. On May 10, 2003, after a lengthy illness, at Union Memorial Hospital, God called Joyce home. Joyce was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She attended Elmer A. Henderson Elementary, Garrison Middle School and later graduated from Forest Park Senior High School. Upon completion of her education, she later became an employee for the State of Maryland as a nurses aide. “ At this difficult time so many people care deeply about what you're going through, though no one can truly understand all that you feel...But please remember how much we care, and know you're surrounded by warm, supportive thoughts and wishes for strength and peace today, and in all the days to come.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ Sorry for you lost. When we lose love ones we need to find comfort. The bible gives us great comfort. Isaiah 25:8,9:"He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will ceratinly wipe the tears from all faces.... And in that day one will certaintl say:'Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.'" There is no other place one can find comfort but in the bible. Please take the time, read the scriptures and find comfort for you and your family.##imported-begin##Phyllis DuVall##imported-end##
