“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ I would like to extend my heartfelt sympathy to the family of my sister in the Lord, Joyce Cook. I was her pastor's wife for several years and loved her positive and sweet disposition. She had great faith and lived her life to please her Lord and Savior. May her God comfort and sustain you at this time of your loss. We have missed seeing her in the pew at Turner Road for some time now, but know that she is without any pain or suffering in her new home. Hopefully her legacy will continue to live on through you her family.

“ To the family of Ms Joyce Harris Cooks. I am sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. The pain is tremendous even with the passage of time. There are scriptures in the Bible to help provide relief of grief and distress. Please read Ps 65:2 that talks about “The Hearer of prayers, people of all flesh will come.
