

Joyce Ann Cooper

November 16, 1947 - October 30, 2023

JOYCE COOPER was born on November 16, 1947, to the late Estelle Makel and the late John Makel.

She attended Baltimore City Public Schools.

Joyce was employed in the hospitality department of a hotel during her early years and remained there until her retirement. Later, she married the late Earnest Cooper Sr. They both opened a business. in their residence (domiciliary care for the elderly). Joyce enjoyed taking care of her clients.

In her leisure she loved watching movies, spending time with her. dog (Bella) and grandchildren (some of whom she raised as her own), going to church and various outings. She also loved her old gospels.

Joyce was an amazing woman, she looked out for everyone. If you needed food, shelter or just a friend, she was there. Joyce also used her home for non-relatives and friends who needed shelter or food. or had family issues. She never asked for a dime.

She is preceded in death by her husband Ernest Cooper Sr., sisters Delores Linton, Barbara Leggett, and Mother Estelle Makel.

Joyce leaves to cherish her memory: her sister, Sandra Williams; brother, John Makel; two sons, Myron Makel and Troy Privette Jr.; two stepsons, Ernest Cooper and Michael Cooper; daughter, Ursula Dorsey and son-in-law, Charles Dorsey Jr.; grandchildren, Aaliyah Makel, Sharliyah Makel, Joyce Makel, Sharnice Kirk, Jaris Privette, Troy Privette, Ronald Jeffries and Taylor-Alexandria Dorsey; greatgrandchildren, Liyah Makel, Lamarr Candia and Melody Tiffany McCormick; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and beloved friends.
