

Joyce E. Gilliam

May 2, 1921 - February 12, 2003

JOYCE EVERETTE GILLIAM, son of the late Frederick Douglas and Nannie Gilliam, was born on May 2, 1922 in Brunswick County, Virginia. Joyce quietly stepped from this world of time into a timeless world, where there is eternal rest and joy. Bubba, as he was known by his family and friends, was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. In 1942, Bubba entered into the military service and served until October 18, 1945. Bubba worked for the Pittsburgh Window Washing Company. He traveled to different cities, washing windows for large companies. Babba was very talented at the many jobs he had. He also worked for Bordon's Ice Cream Company. He worked as a Federal Probation Officer at the Pentagon until he retired. Babba's life will be cherished by ones he leaves to mourn: one daughter, JoAnn Gilliam; one son, George Gilliam (who preceded him in death), Walter and Jerome; two sisters, Helen Williams and Mamie Snead; one daughter-in-law, Donnie Daniels; one aunt, Lillian Gilliam of Richmond, Virginia, Virginia; eleven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren; two devoted friends, Ms. Lillie Powers and Ms. Addie Foster; along with a host of other relatives and faithful friends.
